November Sale of Greatest Magnitude.

Low Prices on New Suits and Coats.

In women's wear there, re always opportunities for exceptional styles and exceptional prices when one only looks for them. With this in view, we are ever alert for novelties that bespeak originality, high tone and superior make. Then, too, the price must be of an undervalue ratio, for at this time in the season we expect our customers' dollars to do double service.

Our buyer has been in the market and found the manufacturers uneasy over the long coming of winter. opportunity was there presented, and we secured a goodly assortment of high-grade garments that will cost you

About One Third Unter Usual Prices.

Stop in to-morrow. You will see many exclusive ideas that will please you, and exclusiveness can be found as easily in a $10.00t o 15.00 garment as in one three or four times the price. That's what we mean by "Remarkable Sale of Greatest Magnitude."

Newest Fashions in Furs.

We have always made a specialty of this Department. Some of the finest furs worn in Richmond have passed through our hands, and in this, like our other departments, we maintain a standard for well-made and reputable goods; therefore you may be assured purchasing our furs that the quality and good make is in every garment the same as with those from any exclusive fur house.

Special November Sale of Trimmed Hats.

Clever, tasty millinery-hats that have expression and style. Of such it is that Kaufmann's frimmed Hat Department abounds. We are ever in the vanguard of commercial opportunity, and give our enstomers the benefit of every chance to buy below value. Now, while the season is yet in its infancy, we have gathered together some of the earlier styles, and will discard them at much lower prices, so that their places may be filled by the fresh arrivals and newer tancies.

These hats are just as stylish as those that go into the cases to-morrow, but we follow our usual rule in keeping fresh and novel models before you. Among them may be found very exact copies of imported patterns that would cost you elsewhere, anyway, from $10.00 to $15.00. If you admire a beautiful hat, that is at the same time dressy and becoming, we want you to see our display.

To-day's sales ended the third month of the Wilson tobacco market—for the present season. The sales for the past month amount to a little over a half million pounds, making a total for the three months of $13,500,000 pounds. These fig-ures about equal the total sales of last season. Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Effic Baker, of Emporia, Va., to Mr. George W. Staunton, of Wilson. The ceremony will take place on November 12th, at 10 o'clock.

Politics are getting more interesting here as the day of election draws near. While no one doubts a safe Democratic majority, yet the fight will not be one-sided, as has been predicted. The com-bined independents, Republicans, and Populists are making a hard fight. Negro registration in this county is small.
